Bernie Grant Arts Centre (BGAC) is a £15 million purpose-built multi-arts centre, which includes a 200-seat auditorium, studio, rehearsal space, café, bar, Paul's Square courtyard and creative workspaces in our Enterprise Centre.

We have a dedicated Commercial team who will manage your your hire contract, from start to completion, including liaising with our internal support teams to ensure you get the best out of our easily configured spaces.

A map of the Seven Sisters area in London. The A10 road runs vertically through the center. To the north, Philip Ln branches off to the left, leading to the Bernie Grant Arts Centre, which is marked with a red dot and a green shaded area. To the south, West Green Rd branches off to the left and Broad Ln branches off to the right. The Seven Sisters station is marked with a red circle and a white bar. A walking distance of 10 minutes (0.5 mile) is indicated from the station to the A10. The A503 road branches off to the left from the A10, leading to Birstall Rd Seven Sisters Station (Stop B). The South Tottenham area is marked at the bottom. Red bus icons are placed along the A10 and A503 roads.
